

New Qualcomm Premier Plan Membership Cards

New 2019 membership cards for Qualcomm Premier Plan members have been distributed and are now ready for use. This includes both Qualcomm Premier Plans – the Qualcomm Premier PPO plan and the Qualcomm QDHP (Qualified Deductible Health Plan).

United Healthcare (UHC) remains the third-party administrator for the Qualcomm Premier Plans and providers will continue to bill UHC for services rendered to Qualcomm Premier Plan members.

Qualcomm Premier Plan providers are paid for services rendered to a member of a Qualcomm Premier Plan by UHC and payment will continue to be at the rate specified in the “Scripps ACO Medical Group Professional Services Agreement” that was originally signed by the participating provider.

It is important to ensure that Qualcomm Premier Plan members are referred to in-network providers and facilities to ensure that members receive care at in-network rates. The searchable directory of Premier Plan providers is available at <https://qualcomm.scripps.org/find-a-provider>. If a member chooses to receive care from an out-of-network provider or facility, the member will be subject to significantly higher copays and/or deductibles.

To identify a member of a Qualcomm Premier Plan, please see the attached 2019 Qualcomm Premier PPO and QDHP membership cards.
